ŚRĪ SARASWATĪ

Śrī Saraswati, the consort of Lord Brahma, the Creator of the universe, is the Goddess of Learning, Knowledge and Wisdom.

She is usually depicted clad in pure white clothes, with four arms, holding a rosary of beads and palm (ola) leaves in each of Her rear two hands and playing veena with the front two hands. Her vehicle is the Swan. Swan is said to have special powers that enables it to separate pure milk from a mixture of milk and water. Swan therefore, symbolizes the power or ability of discrimination between right and wrong or good and bad.

An ego-dominated knowledge can destroy the world. A perfect harmony between one's heart and intellect is essential for the proper application of the knowledge. This indicates that one must apply the acquired knowledge with discrimination for the good of all mankind.

She is on a white lotus flower that denotes supreme knowledge. Her white garment indicates that She is the embodiment of pure knowledge. The palm leaves She holds signifies that knowledge acquired must be used with love and kindness to promote prosperity of mankind. True knowledge acquired with love and devotion eradicates the ego and results in liberation of the seeker. The rosary signifies concentration, meditation and contemplation, leading to union with God.

The Veena She plays, denotes mind and intellect conveying that the seeker must tune his/her mind and intellect in order to live in perfect harmony with the world. Such harmonious living enables the individual to utilize the acquired knowledge for the welfare of all mankind.

Since knowledge is necessary for creation, Śrī Saraswati symbolizes the creative power of Lord Brahma. She is worshipped by all who are interested in acquiring knowledge, especially students, teachers, scholars and scientists; and are blessed by Her with success in education, examinations, competitions, intuitive skills and creative bent of mind and with understanding of and excellence in art, music, dance and other creative works.

All Devotees are encouraged to participate in this Yajnam and receive Śrī Saraswati's blessings.

Om Aim Saraswatyai Namah
