A Letter From the President

Dear Fellow Devotees,

Happy Holidays and best wishes for the New Year. The year 2019 marked another year of growth and progress and we proudly celebrated 42nd Anniversary on a grand scale.

Ganesh Chaturthi Celebrations were once again grand with thousands of people participating in all the functions and especially the Ratha Yãtra on the last day. Devi Navarãtri and Deepãvali Celebrations were just as grand.

Several cultural programs were conducted in the last 6 months. Some of the highlights included 'Dance Showcase' presented by senior students of five dance teachers in the Auditorium. This was a grand and a successful program and funds raised were credited towards Kumbhābhishekam 2020. Among a few others included celebrations of 'Swami Vivekananda's Legacy, Life and Influence' on August 11th, 2019. Devi Navarātri celebrations with Ras Garba on October 4th thru October 6th, 2019, Deepavāli celebrations for the Pātašāla students in the Senior Center on October 19th and the celebrations at the Queens Museum on October 26th, and Anniversary celebrations of the Senior Program on October 12th with variety entertainment. All these celebrations were grand and very well participated. Annual Health Fair was conducted on July 14th and Mini Health Fair was organized on November 10th, 2019.

Temple participated in several interfaith programs including; Interfaith vigils, prayer services honoring victims of tragic terror attacks, and NYC Dept. of Health & Mental Hygiene - Office of the Faith Based Initiative and Borough of Queens Interfaith Advisory Group meeting and many more.

Youth group remained active and had several activities including Elocution Competition for students 1st to 12th grade, STEM Fair, Walkathon and Summer Day Camp - with the theme 'Hindu Heritage' conducted by Dr. MG Prasad for one week for the Patašãla students from July 22nd - July 26th and was successful. For the 16th time in succession since 2003, our Temple participated in the annual OpenHouse NY (OHNY) weekend - statewide on October 19th & 20th, which attracted a record number of visitors to the Temple on both the days.

I take this opportunity to make a humble appeal to all the devotees in seeking generous donations to various impending Temple Projects: 1) Construction of Staff Quarters 2) Repairs & renovation of the Temple in preparation for Jeeranodhãranam (Kumbhãbhishekam) (5th re-consecration) of all main Deities in 2020, and 3) Endowment Fund. Devotees may donate online by visiting the Temple website at https://nyganeshtemple.org

We thank all the groups of volunteers for their dedicated & sterling services. We also wish to thank our excellent staff for their devoted services. We appeal to all the devotees to volunteer their time and talents and serve Šri Mahã Vallabha Ganapati.

I wish to express my thanks to all of you for your support and friendship and appeal to you for your continued help and support for this noble cause. We welcome your suggestions for improvement which will be carefully considered and implemented wherever possible. May the blessings of Šri Mahã Vallabha Ganapati be always with you and your families.

ANUBHAVA - 2019

ANUBHAVA 2019: Hinduism- The Next 50 Years Written By: Akshayam

Anubhava, an annual conference for Hindu Young Professionals, took place on April 27, 2019 with a focus on discussing how Hinduism is set to evolve in the next fifty years. It was an interaction that was coordinated by Akshayam, the Young Professionals Team of The Hindu Temple Society of North America, in an effort to bring together the next generation of Hindu thinkers, leaders, advocates, and volunteers, and offer them a platform to present their thoughts. As with any religion, ours is one that also needs to adapt with the times. This does not suggest a dilution of age-old practices and values but rather, an adaptation to preserve the discovered treasures of our Sanatana Dharma and ensure they remain polished for generations to come. We must make certain that young Hindus will not only accept these traditions but also, preserve, promote and defend them. One must realize that blind faith is not sustainable and accept that to preserve a tradition one must embark on the journey of understanding the significance behind the practices of one's faith. If one truly understands the great benefit that he will receive by following the tenets of our Dharma, he will never look back again. But to get to that stage, he must question and seek answers that provide meaning to him. No two pages of the Gita are alike yet they share the same message. It is all about the delivery. If we accept this truth and not fight the reality that things must change in order to sustain, we will succeed in preserving Hinduism for many generations to come. That is the goal of Anubhava.

The conference started with presentations on temple architecture, the importance of kathas, or story-telling, and challenges facing young Hindus of the West. Such challenges include finding time to attend long rituals during a busy work/study schedule, learning the language to understand the practices, finding one's identity at the crossroads of tradition and modernity, separating culture and religion, etc. Attendees then discussed solutions and ways in which Hinduism can possibly adapt to accommodate future generations. Increased presence of temple teachers who can explain ritualistic practices and their significance either before or after the ceremony is conducted could raise awareness of why such traditions exist. Furthermore, the enormous amount of flexibility and freedom that our Sanatana Dharma offers was presented. We are not bound by many of the rules and regulations that other religious folk must follow. Young Hindus have a unique access to an ancient tradition that has sustained for centuries and has existed beyond the traditional boundaries of "religion" to include arts, sciences, architecture, emotion, and free thought and expression.

The conference concluded with discussions on appropriate response to violence as a young religious community, redefining secularism, and challenges facing young faith leaders and appropriate action items. In order to learn more about initiatives such as Anubhava, other ways to volunteer at the Temple, and learn more about your faith, please contact Akshayam at akshayam@nyganeshtemple.org.

...Save the Date... Mahã Kumbhãbhishekam 2020 June 24th (Wednesday) - July 2nd, 2020 (Thursday)

Jeernoddhãrana Punarãvardhana Ashtabandhana Mahã Kumbhãbhishekam

Kumbhābhishekam (consecration) is a ritualistic process through which the vital energies are infused into a deity which becomes divine in this process. Manifestation of the supreme god is devoutly invoked. The rituals are intended to secure divine presence in the deity at the sanctum sanctorum. As per $\tilde{A}gama \, \tilde{s}\tilde{a}stra$, which is the source text for general frame work of religious and philosophical aspects of temple structure, installation of icon/deity, worship, ceremony and rituals, a temple has to perform consecration ceremony for various reasons. As per the renovation rule (Jeernoddhārana Punarāvardhana) of $\tilde{A}gama$, re-consecration should be done once in every 12 years or whenever any structural modifications or expansions or any major repair work due to natural wear and tear or natural calamities are carried out.

The Hindu Temple Society of North America had its first Kumbhābhishekam performed on July 4, 1977. Subsequently second, third and fourth consecrations were performed in 1988, 2009 & 2011 as per the guidelines of Ãgama šãstra. It is now time for the temple to carry out the fifth Kumbhābhishekam which is scheduled for June 24 - July 2, 2020. Renovation is going on. New dwajasthamba, decorations to parivãra sannidhis & repairs to Gopurams are being carried out and hence the need for the ensuing Kumbhãbhishekam - rejuvenation.

Elaborate arrangements are being made to perform the consecration strictly as per the Agama šãstra, with the help of our temple priests and other priests available locally and from India. The ritual of consecration confers renewed energy at once spiritual and occult on the deities, so that when a devotee worships, he or she partakes this energy.

According to Ajitãgama, Prati bimbastitam mantram, pratishteti prakeertitam meaning every object of worship gets naturally glorified and energized with the mantras chanted during consecration. The rituals are meant to secure a divine presence in the deities and to maintain the sanctity of the shrines. The presence of cosmic energy increases many fold during the performance of Kumbhãbhishekam. Worshipping the re-energized, fully manifested form of all-pervading supreme being would bestow on the devotees fulfillment of their desires.

The ritual would commence a week ahead of the Kumbhãbhishekam ceremony. Rituals include installation of wooden pillar marking the beginning, seeking divine permission, sowing grains on the soil (mother earth), protective band for priest and temple chief, arranging vessels with sacred water, sacramental rituals and fire worship, applying adhesive ingredients of eight herbs, invoking of supreme God into the icons and transforming them into effective objects of worship culminating in divine wedding in commemoration of the completion of the consecration. The rituals end with Mandala Pooja.

Temple cordially invites all to participate and involve themselves in various activities, do seva by servicing, volunteering, donating & sponsoring and thus become recipients of the blessings of Šri Mahã Vallabha Ganapati and other deities.
