Meaning

By chanting His name, Śri Heramba Ganapati fully protects us, with his abhaya-varada hands (in protection & bestowing boon posture), who holds a rope to trap everyone (pāśa), who is seen holding an elephant's-tusk (danta) with a point as an arrow, wearing a garland of meditation beads (aksha / rudrāksha seed), an axe (paraśu), thereupon, a three-headed hook (trišeersham), a hammer / mallet (mudgara), sweetened rice ball (modaka), in all his ten hands, and also seen with a blessed lion (simha) helps in bearing Him, with pleasing-bright golden color outlook, all five heads with elephant-faced (pancha mātanga vaktra). I bow on His feet and offer my prayers to seek blessings from this form of Ganapati.
